

Animal Welfare Resources

ARL Wildlife Rehabilitation Center - The ARL Wildlife Rehabilitation Center is a fully licensed rehabilitation center that is able to care for most native species. We readily accept songbirds, birds of prey, reptiles and most mammals.

They accept a limited number of Rabies Vector Species including raccoons, groundhogs, foxes, skunk, and bats. If you have found one of these species, please wear gloves and do not handle them with your bare hands. Please call ARL's Wildlife Rehabilitation Center to see if they have open cages. If they do not, they will do their best to refer you to another rehabilitator with open cages.
